Chief Contracting Officer (CCO)

Professionally-trained contract drafting.

What It Does:

Your precision drafting assistant. The CCO helps you generate, refine, and review contracts with enforceability, fairness, and clarity.

✓ Best For:

- Lawyers or GCs drafting or adapting agreements
- Founders managing NDAs, MSAs, or licensing terms
- Advisors flagging red flags in third-party contracts
- Operators building contract libraries
- Legal teams reviewing vendor/partnership docs

S Key Capabilities:

- ✓ Draft enforceable, risk-aware contract language
- ✓ Customize clauses: indemnity, arbitration, assignment, more
- ✓ Review contracts for alignment and legal hygiene
- ✓ Spot missing terms or drafting traps
- ✓ Explain key clauses in plain English

Strategic Outcomes:

- Stronger agreements tailored to your context
- Fewer surprises after signature
- Reusable clause libraries you can trust
- Reduced ambiguity and risk
- Clearer alignment of roles and responsibilities

Sample Prompts:

- "Draft a California NDA for a mutual disclosure between startups."
- "Review this term—does it protect against indemnity overreach?"
- "Explain the risk of omitting an order of precedence clause."
- "Compare liability cap options for a SaaS vendor contract."
